Governor's Proclamation

- WHEREAS, the use of illegal drugs and the abuse of alcohol and nicotine constitute a serious threat to the success and well-being of our young people; and
- WHEREAS, parental influence is one of the most crucial factors in determining the likelihood of substance abuse by teenagers; and
- WHEREAS, young people who regularly eat dinner with their families are less likely than the average teenager to smoke, drink, or use illegal drugs; and
- WHEREAS, meal times offer opportunities for families to spend time together, providing a basic structure that strengthens and encourages lasting relationships; and
- WHEREAS, the 2004 observance of Family Day encourages families throughout the Palmetto State to join one another at the dinner table as a means to strengthening the bonds of kinship for the future of our children.

NOW, THEREFORE, I, Mark Sanford, Governor of the Great State of South Carolina, do hereby proclaim September 27, 2004, as

throughout the state and encourage all South Carolinians to recognize the positive impact of strong family interaction on the well-being and future success of the young people of the Palmetto State.
